ORLANDO HEALTH®

Strategic 1-1s

Quick Reference Guide

Every One-On-One Conversation Should Answer Four Core Questions:

Do you notice me?	Do you listen to me?	Do you support me?	Do you trust me?

The Conversation Flow

Use This Template For Every Conversation:

Observe → Understand → Acknowledge → Support → Commit → Follow Through

During The Meeting

Create Safety

Open with:

- "What's been going well?"
- "What's been challenging lately?"

Explore The Issues

Use curiosity:

- "Tell me more about that."
- "What's been hardest?"
- "What would help most?"

Move the Conversation Forward

Discuss growth:

- "What would you like more experience with?"
- "Where do you want to improve?"
- "What would make this role better for you?"

End With Clarity

Always leave with:

- One employee action
- One leader action
- A follow-up time

Difficult Moments In the Meeting

When the conversation hits a barrier or you are unsure what to say

Use this structure to prepare for what you will say next:

Pause – Ask – Reflect - Respond

Self-Check-In After the Meeting

Reflect on the conversation using the following checklist:

- Did I learn something new?
- Did I acknowledge their perspective?
- Did I make clear commitments?
- Did I set a follow-up
